Mrs. J. Mott Smith Dead.

The death of Mrs. J. Mott Smith was announced this morning. Her husband, the late Dr. J. Mott Smith, preceded her to the grave only a few days ago. The late Mrs. Smith was a daughter of the late Collector General Paty and an aunt of John H. Paty of Bishop & Co.'s bank.

Macfarlane & Co. advertise 17-year old brandies and whiskies for medicinal use.

Having secured the necessary permits from the Board of Health the senior and junior crews of the Myrtle and Helelani clubs, with their boats and provisions, went down to Pearl City on the 1:45 train.

Bruce Cartwright, administrator of the estate of R. W. Holt, has petitioned Judge Whiting to have his bond as trustee reduced from $20,000 to $10,000 because six of the beneficiaries of the estate have received their entire shares.

Seldom in Honolulu does one find a store whose windows are dressed artistically, and when one is found it is pleasant to the eye, and reminds one of San Francisco. N. S. Sachs, the Fort street merchant, has his new plate windows dressed with the very latest fads in the millinery and dress goods line, and the blending together of beautiful colors is sure to attract considerable attention.

BORN.

DOW--In Honolulu, Aug. 29, to the wife of Herbert M. Dow, a daughter.

DIED.

MRS. JOHN MOTT SMITH--At her residence on Naunau street, this Saturday morning, at 6:45 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held at the residence on Monday afternoon, September 1st, at 4 p. m. Friends are invited.

IT WILL BE A SUCCESS.

THE BULLETIN'S BASEBALL GAME FOR CHARITABLE PURPOSES.

Any Charitable Organization May be Voted For--Receipts Will go to the Five Highest.

The BULLETIN's baseball game in aid of charitable institutions is the talk of the town and its success is already assured.

In order that there may be no question of favoritism and that the responsibility of dividing the proceeds of the game may rest wholly with the public, it has been decided to allow ballots to be cast for any charitable organization now in existence in the islands, but only those five societies receiving the highest number of votes will receive any of the money, which will be divided in the proportions set forth in yesterday's BULLETIN.

Voting has already commenced at the BULLETIN office at 609 King Street, where a suitable box has been placed in a prominent position in which the ballots may be deposited. The first vote was cast by a little urchin, who could not be much over six or seven years old, who came in soon after the paper was out last night. He had his ballot marked "Captain Ganzel, Stars," but, after the mode of voting was explained to him, had it changed to the German Relief Society, his nationality being German.

Votes will be received daily at the office from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. and no questions asked.

This is the last day of the August term of the Circuit Court. Judge Whiting was hearing divorce cases this forenoon.

Watch the Temple of Fashion window, the goods that are to be sold at the big reduction sale will be displayed marked with plain figures Sale begins on Sept. 2d. *

Yale's Skin Food

removes wrinkles and all traces of age. I feeds through the pores and builds up the fatty membranes and wasted tissues, nourishes the shrivelled and shrunken skin, tones and invigorates the nerves and muscles, enriches the impoverished blood-vessels, and supplies youth and elasticity to the action of the skin. It's perfect.

FITS CURED

(From U. S. Journal of Medicine.)
Prof. W. H. Peck, who makes a specialty of Epilepsy, has without doubt treated and cured more cases than any living Physician; his success is astonishing. We have heard of cases of 20 years standing cured by him. He publishes a valuable work on the disease which he sends with a large bottle of his absolute cure, free to any sufferer who may send their P. O. and Express address. We advise anyone wishing a cure to address, Prof. W. H. PECK, F. D., 4 Cedar St., New York.

Notice to Shippers.
